

ATTENTION:

It is vitally important that the umbilical cables (between the main unit and the power supply(s) NEVER be disconnected until at least 15 minutes has passed since the main power switch of the power supply is turned off and the AC power cord removed.